

Greece as a gateway to S.E. Europe

Nico A. Cotzias Jr.
February 2016

Greece as a gateway to S.E. Europe

- Covers an area of more than 750,000 sq.kms in the Balkans
- Contains over 62 million people
- SEE is the fastest growing region of Europe

...and eventually as a gateway to the Black Sea region

Straddling Europe and Asia is the Black Sea Region:

- In addition to SEE, the Black Sea Region includes Turkey, Russia, Ukraine, Georgia, Moldova, Armenia & Azerbaijan
- Covers an area of 18.5 Million sq.kms around the Black Sea
- Contains over 282 million people
- Geopolitically important as the 2nd largest oil-producing region in the world behind the Middle East and a major transit region for the supply of oil and natural gas to the World's economy

Greece has the opportunity to re-define its role in the global supply chain

Definition of “supply chain”

the sequence of processes involved in the production & distribution of a commodity
